DOUGLAS COUNTY

U.S. SENATE (2-YEAR TERM)

Pete Ricketts - Republican (Incumbent)

Appointed to the seat in 2023 by Governor Jim Pillen to replace Ben Sasse.

Ricketts previously served as the governor of Nebraska from 2015-2023.

Top 3 Priorities if Re-elected: Securing the border, reducing federal spending, and making government more efficient and less bureaucratic.

Abortion: Does not support abortion and does not support giving taxpayer dollars to organizations that perform or refer for abortion services.

Gender Issues: Believes participation in athletic activities and access to restrooms/locker rooms should be based on biological sex.

Border Security: Believes in restoring the “Remain in Mexico” policy, tightening the asylum process, and eliminating Biden’s abuse of parole.

Israel: Believes Israel is our strongest ally in the Middle East, and the U.S. should stand by our ally.

Ukraine: Has criticized Biden’s slow response to weapons requests from Ukraine

John Glen Weaver - Republican

22-year U.S. Air Force veteran and resident of Omaha.

Top 3 Priorities if Elected: Secure our southern border, election integrity, and reduce the debt of $34T (Has stated that he will not vote to increase the debt).

Abortion: Does not support abortion and does not support giving taxpayer dollars to organizations that perform or refer for abortion services.

Gender Issues: Believes participation in athletic activities and access to restrooms/locker rooms should be based on biological sex.

Border Security: Supports closing and securing the southern border; supports deporting those who have come to this country illegally; and does not support a path to citizenship for people who came to the U.S. illegally.

Ukraine: Does not support funding Ukraine.

Israel: Supports the U.S. helping Israel.

Elections: Believes we need to go back to one day for elections; wants common-sense measures for Voter ID, signature verification on absentee ballots, and end mail-in voting.

Mandates: Against mask and vaccination mandates.

Mac Stevens - Republican

4th generation Nebraska agriculture producer, consulting nutritionist, and businessman.

Top 3 Priorities if Elected: More security to protect our schools, communities, cities, and nation; reduce inflationary government overspending and expand domestic fuel production; and expand less invasive, yet effective treatment options for diabetes and cancer.

Abortion: Believes in exceptions for abortion including medical emergencies.

Gender Issues: Wants to protect traditional values on life, marriage, and human sexuality.

Border: Believes we should finish the border wall.

Ukraine: We should meet our 2% of GDP funding obligation but insist all other NATO nations to do the same.

Israel: Believes that Gaza is an ongoing hostage situation and should focus on supporting the families involved.

Elections: Wants to restore election integrity with paper balloting, and proper identification on a voter's day holiday.

Preston Love Jr. - Democrat

Long time civil rights and North Omaha community advocate. He is currently an adjunct professor at the University of Nebraska at Omaha teaching political science.

Top 3 Priorities if Elected: Affordable healthcare, reproductive rights, and the advancement of Nebraska's rural and urban economies.

Abortion: Advocate for abortion and works toward eliminating barriers to abortion services.

Border: Supports a path to citizenship for those who want to contribute to our economy.

Healthcare: Supports universal healthcare coverage.

Ukraine: Believes both conflicts in Ukraine and Gaza represent situations where we are called to intervene to protect human rights and advocate for humanitarian outcomes.

Israel: Believes both conflicts in Ukraine and Gaza represent situations where we are called to intervene to protect human rights and advocate for humanitarian outcomes.

U.S. SENATE (6-YEAR TERM)

Deb Fischer - Republican (Incumbent)

Seeking a third 6-year term in the U.S. Senate. Born and raised in Lincoln, NE.

Currently lives in Valentine, NE where she operates her family ranch.

Top 3 Priorities if Re-elected: Passing and adequately funding the annual National Defense Authorization Act; passing a Farm Bill; and expanding access to paid family leave.

Abortion: Does not support abortion and does not support giving taxpayer dollars to organizations that perform or refer for abortion services.

Gender Issues: Believes participation in athletic activities and access to restrooms/locker rooms should be based on biological sex.

Border: Supports resuming construction on the border wall, ending Catch-And-Release, and reinstating President Trump's Remain in Mexico Policy.

Ukraine: Voted against H.R. 2471 and H.R. 815 which sent $13.6 billion and $60 billion in aid for Ukraine.

Israel: Believes in the long-standing U.S.-Israel alliance; and wants to ensure that we proudly stand behind one of our best allies in their greatest time of need.

Arron Kowalski - Republican

Nebraska farmer and rancher

Top 3 Priorities if Re-elected: Wants a new Homestead Act to build affordable housing in county seats nationwide to boost rural population; fund building large greenhouse facilities in communities so people can grow their food communally; and bundle up plant matter after crops are harvested and submerge it in the Gulf of Mexico to sequester carbon underground and cut greenhouse gas emissions.

Border: Advocates for improving the country's visa program.

Kenneth Peterson - Legalize Marijuana NOW Party

No information found.

Kerry Eddy - Legalize Marijuana NOW Party

Nebraska Air National Guard veteran, artist, musician, licensed pilot, and cancer survivor.

Top 3 Priorities if Elected: Wants to update our healthcare systems to benefit the citizens; protections for our environment; education.

Border: Believes closing borders and deportation are neither useful or sustainable; believes we must research and understand all the factors driving this increase and seek meaningful solutions within those countries from which they are coming.

Foreign Aid: Believes sanctions against those countries which threaten democratic processes and the free exchange of goods, and ideas should be enforced; believes in sanctions against countries that appear neutral in the face of such ideologies or continue to engage with those countries should also be sanctioned.

U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

District 2

Don Bacon - Republican (Incumbent)

U.S. Air Force veteran. Served in the U.S. House of Representatives since 2017.

METROPOLITAN UTILITIES DISTRICT OF OMAHA

Subdivision 1

Jim Begley - Democrat (Incumbent)

First elected to the board in 2013. Current Chair of the MUD Board of Directors.

Infrastructure: Targeting infrastructure rehabilitation efforts toward the areas with the highest failure rates rather than by age or material of the pipe; advocates shifting from cast iron main pipes to less expensive and more flexible plastic pipe that won't corrode; and advocates utilizing new techniques and technology such as pipe bursting to make maintenance and repair less disruptive.

Subdivision 2

David Friend - Republican (Incumbent)

First elected to the board in 2000. Voted against creating a new paid position at MUD to oversee Diversity and Inclusion.

Natural and Cyber Security: Believes that MUD has a robust system to protect IT infrastructure; and was a member of a MUD committee selected to design and build a new construction and operations center to minimize disaster at the long-term operations center.

Streetcar: Opposed to MUD paying for any costs associated with moving gas and water infrastructure for streetcar construction (unless those costs are already part of an established plan to upgrade infrastructure).

Infrastructure: Wants to continue replacing infrastructure as needed and according to established plans without saddling customers with costs not related to delivery of gas and water.

Dennis J. Madsen - Republican

Has over 30 years of experience in MUD's Construction Department.

Infrastructure: Advocates for keeping infrastructure replacement/maintenance jobs in-house with local MUD crews instead of contracted labor.

Natural and Cyber Security: Believes that maintaining a high level of security in all areas to protect MUD information and resident information is important; and believes that MUD already has multiple safeguards in place to protect services against natural disaster.

Patrick M. Brennan - Democrat

Currently the Director of Internal Auditing for MUD. He has worked in the gas industry for 36 years in the areas of gas pipelines, gas marketing, and gas utility. He is also a Certified Public Accountant with 27 years of account management experience.

Infrastructure: Believes that the process of updating infrastructure should be based on where the repairs are needed the most, as well as when the capital expenditure would have an impact on lowering customers' rates in the future.

Budget: Advocates for maintaining MUD's peaking plants of LNG and propane air that enable MUD to avoid buying gas during frigid periods when the cost of gas increased substantially; and advocates in continuing to participate in prepaid gas agreements that enable MUD to secure significant long-term fixed discounts on the cost of gas.

Climate Issues: Believes that every decision needs to be filtered through climate change thinking; and believes the natural gas industry needs to do a better job educating the public about natural gas being a transition fuel in clean energy

OMAHA PUBLIC POWER DISTRICT

Subdivision 8

Mike Cavanaugh - Republican (Incumbent)

Currently self-employed in the private security field. He is also a retired police lieutenant for the city of Omaha. He has served as the treasurer, secretary, and twice as the board chair. He was first elected to the board in 1994.

Budget: Believes that OPPD needs to get 100% carbon-free power by 2050 without sacrificing grid safety and dependability; and believes the zero-emission initiative also must be done without negative financial impact and without losing customer confidence.

Zero Emissions by 2050 Initiative: Will not sacrifice grid security, dependability, nor burden customers with unnecessary cost; and believes the commitment to zero emissions by 2050 is the most important challenge facing OPPD.

Tyler Sondag - Independent

Currently a professional civil engineer.

Infrastructure: Advocates for solving infrastructure problems as they occur instead of deferring maintenance until the problem becomes more costly and unmanageable.

Zero Emissions by 2050 Initiative: Believes that it is important to be a good steward of the environment, but we must also ensure that OPPD maintains reliable and affordable power for all citizens; and many of the technologies required to hit this goal are still in development.

Rolling Blackout Mitigation: Believes that we need to have enough excess power generation capacity to handle both the base loads and the peak loads

Morgan Rye-Craft - Independent

Grid Demand: Believes the most important challenge facing OPPD is increased demand for reliable electricity; and wants to push for sustainable growth that can meet demand while keeping rates low.

Zero Emissions by 2050 Initiative: Believes that this goal is both necessary and possible; and believes OPPD needs to establish milestone goals to ensure progress while keeping the public informed.

Rolling Blackout Mitigation: Believes we need a diverse energy grid; and wants to pursue additional renewable energy projects that will ensure reliability and cost-effectiveness.

REGIONAL METROPOLITAN TRANSIT BOARD OF OMAHA

District 1

Douglas Ignowski - Democrat

Antonio L. Bradshaw - Independent

No additional information available

District 2

Rose Kohl - Republican

Currently works as a data scientist at Union Pacific Railroad.

Ridership: Believes that routes need to be extended to reach the airport and zoo; wants to focus on cleanliness, reliability, and safety to help increase riders; and wants to also consider event-specific routes and schedules.

Routes: Wants to expand services to key areas like connecting North and South Omaha to the rest of the city; and wants to evaluate sidewalks along the existing lines to ensure they are wide enough to be safe and accessible so riders can reach the bus stops.

Budget: Need to budget for maintenance of the existing equipment; and need to recruit and retain quality drivers to avoid service interruptions.

William King - Democrat

Ridership: Wants to deploy a community survey initiative at bus stops and organize community forums to get input from actual riders.

Routes: Wants to look at strategies for linking the area suburbs and rural towns surrounding Omaha and Council Bluffs.

Support: Believes the most important challenge facing public transportation is the lack of political leadership investing in the only public transportation infrastructure in Omaha.

Clarice Dombeck - Independent

She is an urban planner, creative placemaker, community organizer, and urban farmer.

Ridership: Advocates for more frequent bus arrivals, better bus stops, including passenger shelters, and more route information to help increase the number of riders.

Routes: Wants to achieve a multimodal system that supports equitable access and safe movement for everyone; wants easy transfers between buses, the streetcar, and bike share systems; and wants to focus on underserved communities with routes and schedules designed to prioritize Black, Indigenous, and Communities of Color.

Infrastructure: Wants greener vehicles to prioritize environmentally friendly options like electric buses, light rail, and expanded walking and biking infrastructure.

David Levy - Independent

Ridership: Wants to make availability and routes known; wants to offer reliable and frequent service; and wants to partner with large trip generators in the community to help increase the number of riders.

Routes: Believes that the board must look at land use and opportunities in the region and match the transit system to that.

Challenges to Public Transportation: Believes that reputation and reliability are the most important challenges to our public transportation system; wants to focus on strategic media and marketing to address the reputation; and wants to address reliability through strategic design, staff training, constant monitoring, and partnerships with other regional entities.

District 3

John G. Sullivan - Republican

Trustee at St. Stephen the Martyr Catholic Church and School. Former Principal and Director at BCDM Architects.

Routes: As adjacent cities make their requests to join the Regional Metro Transit Authority, their requests should be carefully considered by the board, and where participation would be fruitful for all parties they should be strongly considered.

Challenges to Public Transportation: Believes that managing growth, workforce recruitment, and fiduciary duty to the public are the most important challenges facing our public transportation systems.

Andrew Adams - Democrat

Has 17 years of experience in rail transit.

Ridership: Wants to upgrade infrastructure to meet ADA standards; advocates for dedicated lanes and signal priority; wants to upgrade and maintain security systems on vehicles and at transit stations; and wants to include more micro transit options.

Collaboration: Wants to ensure a partnership with the new streetcar authority.

Challenges to Public Transportation: Advocates for improved safety, sustainability, accessibility, and funding mechanisms.

Yanira Garcia - Democrat

She has 10 years of experience as a communication and public relations professional.

Ridership: Wants to focus on inclusivity and accessibility to help increase ridership.

Routes: Believes that if adding other cities to the public transit system meets the needs of a vast majority of commuters in the area, then it is worth discussing the opportunities.

District 4

Mark V. Holst - Democrat

Ridership: Wants to ensure routes and services match the needs of students, workers, seniors, and underserved communities; and wants to promote the benefits of mass transit to the community to help increase ridership.

Routes: Wants to explore feasible ways to extend the routes to western Omaha, Council Bluffs, and Sarpy County.

Challenges to Public Transportation: Believes that reliability is the most important challenge facing the public transportation system; and advocates for continued use of current and evolving technology to inform customers of delays or schedule changes.

Daniel Padilla - Democrat

Ridership: wants to foster innovation and collaboration to ensure Metro Transit remains accessible, equitable, and integrated into the community.

Routes: wants to expand Metro Transit services to include Fremont, Lincoln, and Blair to help alleviate traffic.

Challenges to Public Transportation: wants to implement urban design strategies that to reduce reliance on cars, enhance land use efficiency, and create a more bicycle and pedestrian friendly city.

Scott Dobbe - Independent

He has experience on the ORBT Stakeholder Advisory Committee, Transit Oriented Development Stakeholder Committee, Heartland 2050 Infrastructure Committee, and the ConnectGo Communications Committee.

Ridership: Wants to focus on rider experience by extending service, enhancing frequency, earning trust with on-time reliability, and respecting riders as valued customers to help grow ridership.

Routes: Will study the data to support expansion where it makes the most sense, responsibly stewarding civic resources while ensuring high-quality connectivity throughout the city.

Challenges to Public Transportation: Believes the driver shortage is the most important challenge facing the public transportation system; and wants to focus on personnel recruitment and retention to help improve on-time performance.

Ben Cass - Democrat

Has experience as a software engineer

Challenges to Public Transportation: Believes Omaha is a car-centric city; and wants to move the city to a place where public transit is a viable, convenient, and affordable option.

Routes: Wants to focus on long-term stewardship and growth of the Metro Omaha system as they add new bus lines, a new streetcar, and expand the rapid transit network.

District 5

Josh Corrigan - Democrat

He has over 10 years of experience in transportation strategy for the Omaha Metro area. He has worked on Connect GO from the Greater Omaha Chamber and MetroNEXT from Metro, as well as initial planning for the Omaha Streetcar project.

Ridership: Wants to remove barriers for everyone including seniors and riders with disabilities to make a more accessible system. Routes: Wants to ensure that our existing system is capable of growing to serve the region; and wants to identify sustainable ways to make connections to important areas before expanding services.

Challenges to Public Transportation: Believes limited funding for transit will make it impossible to grow; and wants to work toward a responsible funding level that can sustain our public transportation system into the future.

John McCann - Republican

Currently works as a local nurse. He is a former candidate for Douglas County Commissioners District 6.

Ridership: Wants to increase available stops to larger areas of communities with limited and expensive parking.

Routes: Wants to make public transit available to other small communities such as Fremont, Blair, Yutan, Plattsmouth, and even Lincoln.

Challenges to Public Transportation: Believes the most important challenges facing public transportation are keeping it safe and affordable to ride.

District 6

Curt Simon - Independent

Former executive director of Metro Transit. He has spent his entire working career in the transportation industry including 33 years with Metro Transit. Board member for the Nebraska Association of Transportation Providers.

Ridership: Wants to increase the frequency on most heavily traveled routes.

Routes: Advocates working with neighboring jurisdictions to communicate the benefits associated with joining the regional system.

Challenges to Public Transportation: Believes the most important challenges to facing our public transportation system is assuring developments are completed with transit access; and wants to work with the development community and City of Omaha to communicate the types of infrastructure that is beneficial to transit riders.
